

COJONES

The name says it all. These foursome from Zagreb will crush you with their massive energetic pumped up desire to rage on stage and play louder. They mix driven heavy stoner sound into a lethal rock and roll explosion.

Screamer Magazine

They are authentic. They are not trying to be anyone else. They are who they are. And their ability to create something different is a compelling enough reason on its own to like them

AllWhatsRock

Cojones are mix of the Swedish berries of Witchcraft, the devils balls of Sabbath, and the nasty low-end chunk of Kyuss and Melvins

Merchants of Air

Vibrating, unique, sensible and heavy, positively inserted into a frame of indisputable musical highness, this is a record that deserves to make history!
